DR. ROBERT C. MCQUILKIN

The President's Greeting to His Graduates

You have a real distinction in being the first graduating class to appear in The Finial. The significance of that name suggests the message I should like to leave with you. All of your teachers, in a measure, would enter into Paul's desire expressed in Colossians 1:28, "Whom we proclaim, admonishing every man and teaching every man in all wisdom, that we may present every man perfect in Christ."

How glorious it is to know that Christ has a plan for each of your lives. He will perfect that which concerneth you. For the present, your great heritage is "Christ in you, the hope of glory" (Col. 1:27), the hope of being conformed to the image of Christ. My prayer for you is that your aim may ever be to lay hold of that for which Christ has laid hold of you.

One other word. You were not linked with one another in the Bible College fellowship as a temporary thing. You will be strengthened, and you will strengthen others, if you continue to share in the life and labors of each other and in the united testimony of Columbia Bible College with its purpose "To Know Him and to Make Him Known."

The Finial

High above the sidewalks of Hampton Street, crowning each of the twin towers of Columbia Bible College, are the bud-like finials which inspired the name of this volume. Being familiar and unique to the daily passerby as they stand out boldly with Heaven as a background, they symbolize the work and testimony of our Alma Mater which, like a finial, lifts the observing eye and holds it for more than a casual glance.

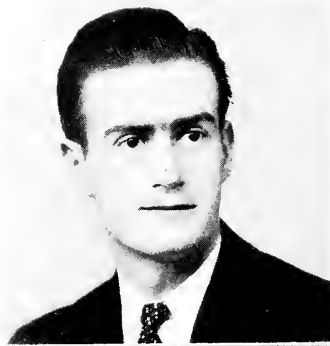

The finial, as a "crowning adornment," was thought an appropriate symbol for such a volume as this is meant to be. Gathering under one cover the pictorial memoirs of the school year and preserving them perhaps for decades beyond the hasty scrutiny of commencement days, it will, in the esteem of every Bible College alumnus, have earned its title, "THE FINIAL."

Farewell

"The Lord shall be thy confidence."

It is with confidence placed in our all-powerful Lord that this Class of '39 embarks from Columbia Bible College to "be strong and do exploits." Four years of preparation here at school have opened our eyes to one essential: that we must now, if never before, lift anchor and as individuals move under His Power.

As we leave our Alma Mater we recall many things for which we may give thanks. Chief among these is an experience of the purpose expressed in the school motto, "To Know Him and to Make Him Known." We have seen a vision of The Seven Hundred Million who have never rightly heard the Gospel. And how shall they hear unless we first hear the command to go and exercise the privilege of carrying it out? As we go, He goes before, and it is of His grace that we have our confidence in Him.

To us as members of the Bible College family, "farewell" means at most only a temporary separation, and not that in spirit. We shall always be united in our prayers. We go forward knowing our great responsibility in remembering one another before the Throne of Grace. We are confident that we too shall be so remembered, and together we place our confidence in the Lord.

The Class of '39

SENIOR CLASS POEM

Lord, make us soldiers—give us Fortitude.
For us the fight allows no interlude.
For us are weapons, armor, life, renewed.
 O Lord our Confidence now make us strong;
 O Lord our Confidence give us a song—
 A song the whole world hears
 Before the Sun appears.

Lord make us soldiers—as the foe is met.
For us thru flame and flood the march is set.
For us the journey holds no stark regret.
 The Lord our Confidence will make us strong;
 The Lord our Confidence will give His song,
 Before the battle clears,
 Until the Sun appears.

Lord make us soldiers—shunning not "the Hard."
For us are wounds—we shall not win unscarred.
For us no Death can leave our spirits marred.
 The Lord our Confidence doth make us strong;
 The Lord our Confidence doth give the song,
 Unmuffled by our fears
 Until the Sun appears.

Lord make us soldiers—as the crisis grows
For us the Captain's final signal blows.
For us is Dawn—the Eastern heaven glows!
 The Lord our Confidence has made us strong;
 The Lord our Confidence fulfilled the song,
 E'en while the Morning nears,
 And as the Sun appears.

The League of Evangelical Students is a national organization with over fifty active chapters in the colleges and universities of the United States. The Columbia Bible College branch aims to support the national organization in prayer, in deputation work, and in other ways.

LEWIS BATES, president

In the fall of 1936 the Student Association affiliated itself with the then newly-formed national organization of the Student Foreign Missions Fellowship, forming a local chapter. At the present time it is one of fourteen such chapters in the United States. This, its third and greatest year, finds the local chapter with 85 members, each of whom are preparing definitely for foreign missionary service.

The purpose of this organization is three-fold: to promote the missionary interest on the campus; to study and pray concerning the needs and work on the mission fields of the world; and to present the missionary message to churches and colleges in the vicinity.

When School Is Over

A career; a home; a ministry, perhaps a different country; with a life the Lord can use to glorify His Name, magnify His Word and multiply His redeemed. Keep His love precious by living moment by moment with Him in constant fellowship, receiving from Him, giving to others.

To this end WE CAN HELP YOU. Vital, sound Christian books, pamphlets and tracts (for yourself and those to whom you minister) are available with and without cost.

Here Are THREE OPPORTUNITIES Offered:

- FOR INDIVIDUAL NEEDS our Retail Mail service reaches to every spot on the globe—far up into northwest China, the Australian “bush,” the Brazilian jungles, the Arctic Circle—and is as near you as your mail box or carrier. Though specializing in distinctly Christian literature we can obtain any book whose source is known (often find that too).
- FOR FINANCIAL AND SPIRITUAL PROFIT books for resale are available at liberal discounts to permit a practical colportage work, getting into homes, church bookstands, follow up evangelistic services, and just plain personal work.
- FOR GOSPEL NEGLECTED GROUPS, hospitals; jails; prisons; CCC camps; fire stations; rural, mountain and pioneer schools; French Louisiana; Spanish speaking; Portuguese and, to a lesser extent, three other language groups. To provide the Gospel for these otherwise unreached, certain funds are available to supply Christian workers with much needed books and Scripture portions WITHOUT COST OR FINANCIAL OBLIGATION.

During the Forty-four Years Since D. L. Moody founded This Organization,

THE BIBLE INSTITUTE COLPORTAGE ASSOCIATION (The Moody Press)

It has served literally thousands of believers and published more than 80,000,000 pieces of Christian literature. MAY WE HELP YOU?
